

CFS COMMITTEE OBSERVATION OF CANDIDATE FORM

Candidate: Quinn Briggs Email: briggsq@byui.edu Phone: 7618

In addition to your general observations, I would like your feedback on the following activities that I am focusing on improving in my classroom or teaching skills:

- Keeping the students engaged and interested
- Using class time as productively as possible
- Asking effective questions

Observer: Nathan Birch

Class: CSE 270

Observation Date: 06/21/2023

GENERAL OBSERVATIONS

Organization and Preparation:

this includes items such as a written lesson plan, a board plan, management of role, announcements, papers, etc.

What worked well?

The slides at the beginning of class were very helpful and informative. The slides showed upcoming events and assignments, had a spiritual thought, and the plan for today. They helped to engage the students.

What could be strengthened?

Management of the Learning Environment:

this includes items such as the classroom layout, use of technology or multi-media, establishing a learning culture, etc.

What worked well?

There was a really great classroom culture. Students were engaged. They were comfortable enough to ask questions and attentive enough to be respectful. Quinn has a very good presence in the classroom that has helped to create the culture.

What could be strengthened?

Incorporation of the Learning Model

Preparation: this includes how student are invited and expected to participate and how the candidate creates accountability for these expectations. Teach One Another: this includes in-class and out-of-class opportunities for students to collaboratively learn and instruct each other. Wonder and Prove: this includes post-classroom assignments or activities that help students make connection with what they are learning along with how the candidate creates accountability for these expectations.
What worked well? During the lecture, students from all around the classroom asked many questions, helping to teach one another.	What could be strengthened?

FOCUSED OBSERVATIONS (as specifically requested)

Strengths: Instructor presence was phenomenal. Classroom culture was great. Great balance between the 25ish minutes of lecture, and the classroom activity. Quinn did a good job of keeping the class engaged.

Suggestions for Improvement: None, just keep rocking it.

Additional Comments: Thank you for letting me join you today!
